However, please also ensure that you have entered into appropriate non-disclosure agreements with potential purchasers to ensure the confidentiality of your information is adequately protected.

Fonterra will visit your farm to report on tanker roadway and vat compliance but will not visit your farm to respond to the other information requests. Our response will rely on information we already hold, obtained from previous farm visits and interactions. Circumstances on farm may have changed, or matters may not have been brought to our attention. Our records may not be current, accurate or complete. As such, we cannot and do not make any representations as to current compliance. The recipient of the information will be advised these limitations and that use of the information is at their risk, that we strongly encourage independent investigations and on farm inspections, and to seek independent advice.
